Please check out our wonderful friend & teacher, Alina's website & incredible work... Alinaworthy! Alina teaches us like no one else how we need to "notice what we notice" (one of our mantras), believe, & hear with more than our ears. She is the master & has gathered an amazing group of followers to believe & strive with her to make the world more "Alina-worthy"! Their mission is to help "solve problems around assistive technology, user experience, and accessibility."
