

Pick of the Month – January 2013

AT/AAC Pick:

Mind Reader: Unlocking My Voice

The BBC show "Mind Reader: Unlocking my voice" is about individuals who have experienced a traumatic brain injury and have been considered to be in a vegetative state. It follows work in the UK and Canada that has been done with brain scans and the potential implications for communication. It's an hour long but well worth the watch!!

Watch the show at http://www.dailymotion.com/video/xv4ldq_the-mind-reader-unlocking-my-voice-couchripper_shortfilms?start=1185#.UKmgWYauokM